

The FCC vote Monday will conclude a process which has shown deliberate disregard for the views and opinions of the American people. The relaxing of ownership rules will increase the homogenization of the press and increase the control that corporate America has over the US media outlets. Chairman Powell should delay the vote and establish an adequate comment period for additional discussion of this issue.